

Key ideas

Justice involves telling the truth and it means being fair to others whether they are friends or enemies.

God is just, fair and merciful. He asks us to work for justice and mercy in our own time and in the place where we are.

Injustice can happen anywhere from those countries at war to your own home, at school or in the area you live in.

Martin Luther King

He was a black Baptist minister. He was an influential voice for all the black people in America who were being treated differently because of their race. He dreamed of a better world and worked hard to create it.

Oscar Romero

An ordained priest and then a Archbishop. He was aware that the wealth of his country was in the hands of a small number of families. He wanted to help the huge population of people in poverty in his country.

Vocabulary 10

Bible	Christian scriptures, consisting of the old and new testaments in a book called a Bible.
Civil rights	the rights of citizens to political and social.
Equality	the state of being equal, especially in rights or opportunities.
Fair	treating people equally or doing something equally without favouritism.
Human rights	rights which are believed to belong to every person
Injustice	when something has been dealt with unfairly.
Justice	to be fair and reasonable.
Martyr	a person who is put to death or endures great suffering on behalf of any belief, principle, or cause
Persecuted	someone being ill-treated sometimes because of their race, political beliefs or religious beliefs.
Stewardship	the job of supervising or taking care of something,.

Home learning:

- Learn more about Martin Luther king using this link: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zjk382/articles/zknmrj6>
- Watch the famous 'I have a dream' speech by Martin Luther King: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zppsdmn>